

JOHN D. McCANN SCHOLARSHIP FUND

THE JOHN D. McCANN SCHOLARSHIP FUND is a particular way that we can support students under the care of East Iowa Presbytery. Consider a special offering in your church.

PRESBYTERY OF EAST IOWA

- A fund for candidates for the ministry or certified leadership from this Presbytery
- A fund administrated by the Committee on Preparation for Ministry from East Iowa Presbytery
- A fund that honors the memory and vision of John D. McCann

HOW ARE STUDENTS HELPED?

The Presbytery of East Iowa helps Candidates, Inquirers and Seekers at Presbyterian seminaries. As they come under the care of our East Iowa Presbytery Committee on Preparation for Ministry, we help theological students on the basis of their needs.

WHEN TO TAKE OFFERINGS?

- At Installation Service
- At Ordination Service
- On Seminary Sunday
- On any occasion where you wish to raise your congregation's awareness of the needs of candidates

WHO WAS JOHN D. McCANN

John D. McCann was a Presbyterian minister who served in East Iowa Presbytery for nearly two decades. He moved to Iowa to become Director of Clinical Pastoral Education for the Alcohol Treatment Center at the University of Iowa. He was a Certified Clinical Pastoral Education Supervisor as well as a Diplomat in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors.

In his counseling with people he combined the best of Pastoral Care with Jungian Psychotherapy. Through his private practice and the Iowa City Counseling Center he provided growth and healing for countless clients including many Presbyterians. He served for many years on the Care of Candidates Committee and he continued as a valuable consultant after his committee term and retirement. This Scholarship Fund was established in his memory in 1985.

CONTRIBUTIONS MAY BE MAILED TO:

Presbytery of East Iowa
P. O. Box 5123
Coralville, IA 52241